AVAILABLE PROPERTY: United Way releases a Request for Information for their 222 Maiden Lane property.

The United Way of Cumberland County is pleased to partner with the Cool Spring Downtown District, the managing partner for the Municipal Service District, and seeks non-binding submissions from interested and qualified buyers to purchase its double lot adjacent to Fayetteville's iconic Cross Creek.

Responses to this Request for Information (RFI) will inform the United Way of Cumberland County Board of Directors in its conversation regarding the possible sale of the building and property, which features a two-story structure, two parking areas, and creek frontage. A link to the Request for Information is provided here: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/mevalvjn85kqfsy/Request%20for%20Information%20UNITED%20WAY.pdf?dl=0>

United Way of Cumberland County Executive Director/CEO Amy Navejas stated "When it comes to location, this property is truly one of a kind. United Way has enjoyed this central, easy access space for many years and knows that it can continue to serve as an asset to the downtown community."

Interested parties should submit their documentation to Amy Navejas at director@unitedway-cc.org.

About United Way

United Way improves lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good. United Way of Cumberland County strives to advance the common good by focusing on the building blocks for a good life: education, financial stability, health and critical basic needs. At United Way, we recognize that lasting changes are achieved by addressing the underlying causes of problems. United Way partners with other nonprofit agencies to improve lives right here in Cumberland County. Give. Advocate. Volunteer. LIVE UNITED.
