BEES AND BOARDS UNVEILS NEW RESTAURANT CONCEPT, CHOOSES DOWNTOWN AS FLAGSHIP LOCATION

FAYETTEVILLE, NC - Bees & Boards Charcuterie & Catering Co., a reputable brand known for its made-to-order charcuterie boards and unique catering experiences, is excited to announce the launch of a new restaurant concept which will include retail, dining, private events, grab and go, and catering services. Bees and Boards has selected downtown Fayetteville as the ideal destination for its inaugural location, located on the ground floor of the Dogwood State Bank building at 225 Green Street. The famed Charcuterie and catering company is expanding its name to The Restaurant and Provision Company Bees and Boards.

Bees and Boards' new restaurant will feature a fun and inviting ambiance, designed to create an intimate yet energetic setting for guests to enjoy their meals or host private events. At the heart of Bees and Boards' new restaurant concept is a unique combination of fresh, American cuisine in a market-style atmosphere highlighting seasonal, locally sourced ingredients that includes a variety of menu items such as salads, provisions, sandwiches and wraps for breakfast and lunch.

The newly renovated Dogwood State Bank Building was carefully selected as the perfect location for the restaurant for its exquisitely designed spaces and lively atmosphere which aligns with Bees and Boards' vision and culinary concept. Nestled in the heart of Downtown Fayetteville, the restaurant will be operated by Beth Smith and Sarahgrace Mitchell. Smith previously owned Hilltop House Restaurant and Catering for 16 years before closing in 2020. "After focusing on charcuterie boards and other popular trends in recent years, I am very eager to jump back into the kitchen and showcase new culinary art to the vibrant downtown and Fayetteville natives," states Smith, Executive Chef.

The new location of Bees and Boards is slated to open its doors on July 10, with soft open dates of July 5-7, 2023. Bees and Boards invites food enthusiasts and curious diners to join them on this culinary journey.
